Application for transit visa for Australia (class 771)

Form

876

Please read the following notes carefully before completing this form.

No fee is payable for the grant of an Australian transit visa

Who completes this form?

You should complete this application form if you intend to remain in Australia no longer than 72 hours and if you can establish that the principal purpose in entering Australia is:

- to pass through Australia in transit to another country (where a 'stopover' is intended, you should apply for the appropriate visa in a visitor class instead); or
- to pass through Australia to join a vessel as a crew member.

Children included in a parent's passport need not complete a separate application form. Details of such children should be included on their parent's/guardian's application form.

Please answer all questions fully and correctly. An incorrect answer, or failure to provide an answer to any question, will be taken into account when your application is being considered and could lead to the refusal of your application.

Travel agents may complete this form for you but you must sign the declaration.

For information on the making and processing of visa applications, see the information form 1025i Making and processing visa applications.

What is needed with the application?

Persons other than the crew joining a vessel

You must enclose with your application:

- a passport valid for travel to Australia issued to, or including, each person in the application;
- a recent passport-type photograph of each person included in the application form (the photograph must be signed on the back by the person to whom it refers);
- an itinerary;
- confirmed onward booking to continue your journey from Australia to a third country within 72 hours of arrival; and/or
- correct documentation (eg. visa) for entry to that third country.

Persons joining as crew of a vessel

Your application should be accompanied by:

- a passport and another document that identifies the holder as a seafarer;
- the following details are to be supplied by the local shipping/handling agent:
 - the names of the persons joining the vessel as crew;
 - the names of the persons they are replacing;
 - the name of the vessel;
 - the date of arrival in Australia of the persons to be visaed;
 - the port and date they are expected to join the vessel;
 - if they are not the vessel's owner, a copy of the request for crew from the vessel's agent in Australia. The request should contain the details of the crew members applying for visas.

How you lodge the application

Your completed application accompanied by the passport and photograph may be lodged by you or by your representative or sent by mail. If the passport is to be returned by mail you must provide an addressed passport-size envelope and sufficient postage.

Residential address

You must provide the address where you intend to live while your application is being dealt with. Failure to give your residential address in this application will result in this application being invalid. A Post Office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.

Documents needed on arrival

- Passport with a valid visa for travel to Australia and if crew joining a vessel, another document that identifies the holder as a seafarer.
- Return or onward ticket for a destination beyond Australia.
- Completed incoming passenger card (will be available on ship/aircraft prior to arrival).

Period of stay in Australia

Your stay in Australia must be for no longer than 72 hours. Extensions of stay will not be granted.

Transit visa conditions

Transit visas have the following conditions attached to them. If you do not comply with the conditions, your visa may be cancelled and you will become an unlawful non-citizen.

An applicant must not:

- work in Australia
- undertake formal studies or training in Australia

Authorisation of a person to receive written communications

You may authorise another person to receive all written communications about your visa application with the Department of Immigration and Multicultural and Indigenous Affairs (DIMIA). To do this you will need to complete the sections of the form with the heading Options for receiving written communications and Authorised person details. The authorised person will need to sign at section Authorised person details. You can only appoint one authorised person at any time.

If you nominate an authorised person DIMIA will send to that person any written communications relating to your application that would otherwise have been sent to you. You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that person as if they had been sent to you.

If you decide to change the authorised person that you have nominated after you have lodged your application, you must promptly advise DIMIA in writing of the details of that person. If you are a Business Skills visa holder and need to advise DIMIA of a change of authorised person you should use the form 922 Notification of address or change of address for Business Skills visa holders.

Authorisation of a migration agent to act on your behalf

If you have a migration agent acting on your behalf in relation to your visa application you need to complete the sections of the form with the heading Options for receiving written communications and Migration agent details. The migration agent will need to sign at section Migration agent details.

Appointing a migration agent to act on your behalf includes authorising DIMIA to send to that agent any written communication about your visa application that would otherwise have been sent to you. You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that agent as if they had been sent to you.

When you provide details of the migration agent please make sure you give the agent's 7-digit migration agent registration number (MARN) and the agent's full name.

If you change your migration agent or end his/her appointment after you have lodged this application you must promptly advise DIMIA by using the Form 956 Appointment of migration agent, which is available on the DIMIA website or from your migration agent. You should also notify the agent of this, preferably in writing.

Using a migration agent

You are not required to use a migration agent. However, if you intend to use a migration agent you are advised to use a registered migration agent.

Under Australian law, anyone who uses knowledge of migration procedures to offer immigration assistance to a person wishing to obtain a visa to enter or remain in Australia must be registered.

A list of registered migration agents is available from the Migration Agents Registration Authority (MARA) website www.themara.com.au

You can contact the MARA at:

PO Box Q1551
QVB NSW 1230
AUSTRALIA

Telephone: 02 9299 5446

Facsimile: 02 9299 8448

E-mail: themara@themara.com.au

Registered migration agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct and generally charge for their services. The MARA investigates complaints against registered migration agents and may take disciplinary action against them. If you have a concern about a registered migration agent, you should contact the MARA. You can also download a copy of the complaint form from the MARA's website.

Consent to communicate electronically

DIMIA may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or e-mail will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application DIMIA may need to communicate with you about sensitive information such as health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed or interfered with by others. If you agree to DIMIA communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by DIMIA for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use them for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Commonwealth Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to DIMIA over the internet or by other electronic means.

If you authorise another person to receive documents on your behalf and they wish to be contacted electronically, their signature is required on the form to indicate their consent to this type of communication. You may use form 1231 Appointment of authorised person for this purpose.

About the information you give in this form

The Department of Immigration and Multicultural and Indigenous Affairs (DIMIA) is authorised to collect information provided on this form under Part 2 of the Migration Act 1958 'Control of Arrival and Presence of Non-Citizens'. The information provided will be used for assessing your eligibility for a visa to travel to, enter and/or remain in Australia and for other purposes relating to the administration of the Migration Act.

The information provided might also be disclosed to agencies who are authorised to receive information relating to adoption, border control, business skills, citizenship, education, health assessment, health insurance, health services, law enforcement, pensions and benefits, refugee services, taxation, review of decisions and registration of migration agents.

The information on this form, including the results of any tests for Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV), will be used to assess your health for an Australian visa. A positive HIV or other test result will not necessarily lead to a visa being denied. Your result(s) may be disclosed to the relevant Commonwealth, State and Territory health agencies.

Form 1163i Health requirement for temporary entry to Australia provides additional information on Australia's visa health requirements. This form is available at DIMIA offices or via the internet at www.immi.gov.au

You should read the information form 993i Safeguarding your personal information, which is available from DIMIA offices, for details of agencies to which your information might be disclosed.
